

Christopher S. Gong

DIRECTOR OF PARALEGALS

T 617.217.5321 F 617.217.5200 E cgong@cetllp.com

OVERVIEW

Christopher is Cetrulo LLP's Director of Paralegals responsible for paralegal hiring, training, and development. Christopher also takes active role as the lead Defense Liaison paralegal for the Massachusetts Asbestos Litigation ("MAL"), actively monitoring case filings and docket updates, coordinating trial lists and scheduling orders, and supporting Firm attorneys in the administration of the MAL docket. Christopher's knowledge and experience serve as a valuable resource to the Firm and the MAL defense group as a whole.

HONORS

- USA Hockey 2011-2012 New Leaders Award

EDUCATION

- B.A., History, Northeastern University, 1992

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

When away from the office, Christopher is active in community and statewide youth athletic organizations. Christopher has been a volunteer coach and board member for the following organizations:

- Hingham Youth Hockey – Past Coach and Board Member
- Hingham Girls Hockey – Past Coach and Board Member
- Hingham Youth Soccer – Past Coach and Past President, Current Vice President
- Massachusetts Hockey – Current 5th Vice President, Director Girls/Women's District, Co-Chair of Diversity & Inclusion Committee, Co-Chair of Rules Committee, Member of Discipline Committee, Finance Committee, Audit Committee and Girls/Women's

Tournament Committee

- Hingham High School – Volunteer JV Girls Hockey Assistant Coach
- Assabet Valley Girls Hockey – Past Coach
- Bay State Breakers Hockey – Registrar & Coach