Fernanda Ayres Barros

SENIOR PARALEGAL

T 617.217.5392 F 617.217.5200 E FBarros@cetllp.com

Practice Areas

Asbestos Litigation

OVERVIEW

Fernanda Barros is a Senior Paralegal in Cetrulo LLP's Boston office. She supports the firm's Toxic Tort practice, with focus on asbestos litigation, assisting attorneys in all stages of case development. Fernanda earned her Bachelor of Laws degree from Estacio de Sa University, Brazil, and holds a postgraduate certificate in Human Rights, Social Responsibility, and Global Citizenship from PUC-RS. She also earned her Master of Laws (LL.M.) from Cleveland State University, where she focused on U.S. legal studies to complement her international legal education.

Before joining Cetrulo LLP, Fernanda worked at The Sherwin-Williams Company and brings both international legal training and hands-on U.S. litigation experience to her role.

EDUCATION

- Postgraduate Certificate in Human Rights, Social Responsibility and Global Citizenship, Pontifica Catholic University of Rio Grande do Sul, 2024
- L.L.M., Cleveland State University College of Law, 2023
- Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), Universidade Estacio de Sa, 2017

OUTSIDE CETRULO

When away from the office, Fernanda enjoys reading, spending time with family, exercising, cooking, and traveling. She is also an active volunteer at her local church, where she supports children's programs and other ministries.