OVERVIEW

Kyle practices in the Toxic Tort Litigation Group of Cetrulo LLP. Kyle represents both Fortune 100 companies and family-owned businesses as local, regional, and national coordinating counsel in mass tort litigation. Kyle has successfully defended clients in the state and federal courts of Illinois, Massachusetts, Maine, Missouri, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Vermont in multi-party, multi-jurisdictional, mass tort litigation alleging injuries from exposure to asbestos, lead pigment, benzene, talc, PFAS and radiation. He has also been retained by prospective buyers to perform risk management assessments of the toxic tort liabilities of acquisition "target" companies.

EXPERIENCE

- Brown v. Lockheed Martin Corp., 814 F.3d 619 (2d Cir. 2016) Worked with client, a major aerospace company, to obtain dismissal based on lack of personal jurisdiction in United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, which was upheld in landmark ruling in the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.
- The Station Nightclub Fire Litigation: Kyle represented a building products manufacturer in the civil litigation arising out of the 2003 fire at The Station nightclub in West Warwick, Rhode Island, involving over 550 plaintiffs, 98 defendants, and a collective settlement of $176 Million.
- Cabasug v. Crane, 989 F. Supp. 2d 1027 (2013) Hawaii Asbestos Litigation: Kyle successfully obtained summary judgment for two defendants in the Hawaii asbestos litigation.
- Danvers Explosion: Kyle successfully represented a chemical company in the civil litigation arising out of a 2006 explosion in Danversport, MA.
- Cosmetic Talc: In one of the first cosmetic talc cases litigated in Massachusetts, Kyle obtained a complete dismissal of the action as to all defendants after discovering the Plaintiff lying under oath during her discovery deposition. After several attempts to evade the truth, the Plaintiff ultimately acknowledged on the record that she had not been truthful, and the case was subsequently dismissed as to all defendants. See Follansbee v. All, C.A. 21-1722 (2021).
