OVERVIEW

Lacy is a Senior Paralegal at Cetrulo LLP, supporting the firm's New York and New Jersey offices. She works closely with the mass tort team, focusing on asbestos and talc cases, and guides cases through every stage of the legal process.

She brings extensive trial experience in the New York Supreme Court, where she assisted with case preparation and supported attorneys in the courtroom.

Lacy earned her Associate of Science degree in Paralegal Studies from Hutchinson Community College. Her interest in the legal field began in high school, where she worked as a courthouse runner and administrative assistant—early experience that helped shape her career path.
